The StepIn! project - Status Quo

The StepIn! project has entered the last stage of developing a hands-on tool for adult educators in the field of migration, integration, and active citizenship.

From January to April 2013 the practice test of the 7 educational prototype modules took place in all participating countries: Czech Republic, Cyprus, Germany, Italy, Scotland, Slovenia, and Sweden.

Adult educators, migrants, employees of public bodies and NGOs took part in testing the educational materials. Their feedback served as the basis for further improvement.

The project team in May 2013

The 3rd Partner Meeting took place in May 2013 in Kristianstad, Sweden. The project team met in order to set the next and last steps of the project work.

Get involved in the project!

We cordially invite all interested stakeholders in the fields of civic education, integration and adult education to contribute their expertise to the improvement of the materials or to join the project as an associated partner.

Download the modules at the website www.stepin-grundtvig.org, read them critically, and give us feedback and suggestions for improvement.

If you are interested in an associated partnership or if you would like to state your feedback on the modules we will be happy to hear from you via email: info@stepin-grundtvig.org.

Next step: Training Course in October 2013!

The European Grundtvig Training Course "Promoting social inclusion by fostering migrants' active citizenship and intercultural competences of adult education professionals" will take place on 18 - 22 November in Hannover, Germany.

Central actors of educational and administrative integration of migrants will be introduced to the educational approach of the StepIn! project.

In addition, this training will serve as a European platform for exchange of best practice experiences in addressing migrants' key competences for active citizenship and lifelong learning.

If you are interested in taking part, please do not hesitate and contact the coordinator c/o Ms Zita Beutler: info@stepin-grundtvig.org.
